"SOIREE ARTISTIQUE"

WILL BE GIVEN TWICE

Demand for Seats for Benefit for Families of French Artists Exceeds Supply.

Tuesday, as well as Monday evening next will witness the presentation of the combination of cabaret, carnival and masked ball by the Society of Beaux Arts Architects at the Willard for the benefit of the destitute families of the artists of France who have gone to the front. The second performance of this "soiree artistique," as it has been named, is necessitated by a demand for tickets too great to be fulfilled in one evening.

All of the 500 seats at tables, together with the dozen boxes, have been reserved for Monday, and the committee in charge, George Oakley Totten, Jr., chairman, decided last evening, therefore, to repeat the entertainment the following night. Already a large number of tickets for this second presentation have been sold.

Co-operating with the Society of Beaux Arts Architects in the affair are the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, the Washington Architectural Club and the Society of Washington Artists.

So many tables already have been taken for this second performance that the committee believes it will be in every way as brilliant an affair as the first, and it is hoped every one will appear in fancy dress, preferably of some French period.

Beside the serious part of the program, which will include the Greek idyll arranged by Mrs. Christian Hemmely, in which many professional and amateur artists of the capital are announced to take part, and singing by Mlle. Yvonne de Treville of the Opera Comique in Paris and the Theater de la Monnaie of Brussels, there will be vaudeville numbers. This will be followed by a carnival and general dancing.
